GWOBRAU • AWARDS

WALES THE TRUE TASTE FOOD AND DRINK AWARD WINNERS

This listing details the winning products from over 300 companies which have won Awards since the beginning of the competition in 2002.

The annual Wales the True Taste Food and Drink Awards reward high standards and innovation in the food and drink sector in Wales. Managed by the Welsh Government, the Awards aim to promote the sector by recognising the very best of Welsh produce.

What are the Awards?

The Awards have become recognised as a coveted seal of approval for quality Welsh food and drink. Entries open in the spring, judging takes place over the summer, and winners are revealed in the autumn. Each entry is rigorously tasted and tested by a panel of judges from the industry.

With around 1,000 entries in over 30 categories, the Awards offer the opportunity for a wide variety of companies to be recognised. The coverage of the competition ranges from product categories (covering meat, fish, bakery, fresh produce, and so on) to eating out categories (including restaurants, hotels, cafes and tea rooms) and speciality categories (such as organic produce, healthy options, exporting, sustainability, local sourcing, and delis).

Each year a True Taste Champion is appointed from the Welsh food and drink sector and spends a year as an ambassador. The True Taste Champions bring their own strengths to play in communicating with the industry and the public to raise the profile of the sector.

When are Award winners announced?

Award winners are announced at a special event every autumn, and the Awards ceremony has been described as the Oscars of the Welsh food and drink industry. Featured on television and in the press, we make sure that winners get their share of the limelight.

What are the benefits of winning an Award?

Winning an Award brings more than just a trophy. It creates a point of difference that helps to create an advantage in an ever more competitive marketplace. Winners are featured in our True Taste magazine, in the press, on TV and online.

The True Taste Award logo can be featured on product packaging and used in advertising, contributing to more effective marketing and increased sales.
